The Meaning of San Giorgio Award

By Mario Gandolfi

The 46th edition of the San Giorgio Awards Ceremony took place in the Sala dei Capitani at Palazzo San Giorgio with the presence of city authorities. The hall was crowded and many had to stand.

The San Giorgio Award was given to Mons. Luigi Molinari in recognition of his constant attention to the problems of workers and seafarers, problems that are particularly relevant in present times.

A plaque was give to Preside Wladimiro Iozzi who worked hard to keep the school courses up-to-date.

Prizes were given to some students of IT Nautico San Giorgio and to some officers cadets of the Shipping Academy

The objective of the ceremony was to reward the students of IT Nautico and of the Academy who got the highest grades in the past school year. For the cadets it was also a sign of the appreciation of the companies on whose vessels they are training.

For the town shipping it was a chance for meeting the young people who have worked harder to be properly prepared for their future jobs. The event was specifically designed to make those who are looking for well qualified personnel to know that there are well prepared young people ready to enter the world of work with a theoretical and, for the students of the Academy, also practical baggage, consistent with the current requirements of the shipping companies.

We thank the winners who do honour to their families and their teachers.

At the 'Associazione ex Allievi e Docenti "we are convinced that this successful event may serve to spur the future generations.
