Bicentenary of Istruzione Nautica in Genoa

(by Francesco Boero)

Abridged

(To read the text in its complete original version go to the Italian site - La Carretta n.122)

Dear all,

Back from our stay in Ischia (see Dino's report), we - together with prof.ssa Angela Pastorino and with Collegio Capitani di Lungo Corso e di Macchina - are busy organizing the celebrations for the Bicentenary of Istruzione Nautica in Genoa.

(To read the programme of the celebrations go to 'News'.)

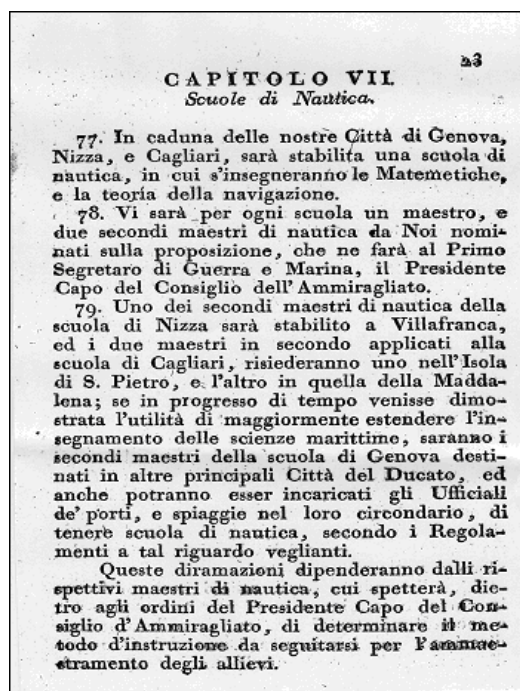

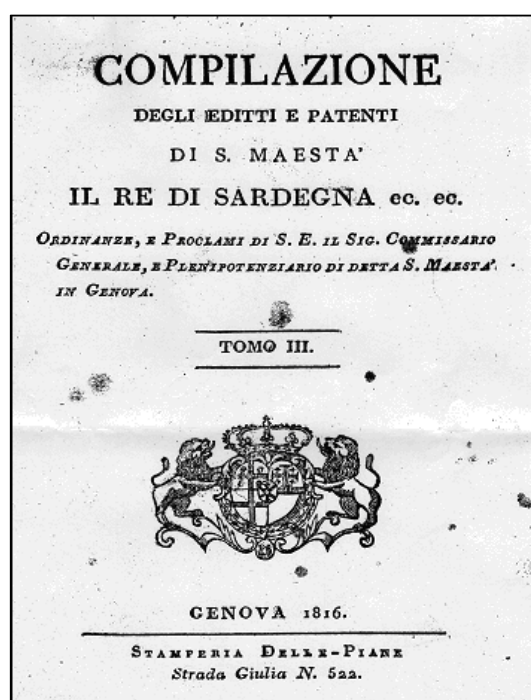

Everybody knows that after the Congress of Vienna, Genoa was annexed to the Kingdom of Sardinia. Few, however, know that, in 1816, King Vittorio Emanuele I decreed the establishment in Genoa of the Regia Scuola di Marina (forerunner of Leghorn Naval Academy) and of the Regia Scuola (statale) di Nautica della Marina Mercantile, entrusting the supreme command and the organization of both schools to AMM. Giorgio De Geneys

We learnt all this thanks to the research work carried out by com.te Virgilio Bozzo and by Dino Fioravanti, and, taking into consideration the date of the decree of the King (9 March, 1816), we decided to organize a celebration.

Since I am a former student of Nautico "S.Giorgio" as well as the President of the Association and a Genoese, I am particularly proud of this decision.

I would like to be able to do more for Genoa and I hope that all stakeholders may decide to contribute to the event as well as to Genoa economic recovery.

ZUMBAI, BAUER

ABOUT NAUTICO SAN GIORGIO

by Virgilio Bozzo

Abridged

(To read the text in its complete original version go to the Italian site - La Carretta n.122)

The article by Virgilio Bozzo is about the changes that have taken place over the years in the way that school results are provided. It is mainly about the new terminology in use in the Italian schools .

Things have changed since 2007/2008

At the final school-leaving state exam, a student can just pass (be promosso) or fail (be non ammesso).

The final pass grades range from 60 (formerly 6) to 100 (formerly 10).

The diplomas are handed out some months later, at a ceremony in the School Hall.

Students of lower classes (first to fourth years) can

- ☐ pass (be ammesso, formerly be promosso) or
- ☐ get sospensione del giudizio (formerly rimandato) if they failed up to 3 subjects or
- ☐ fail (be non ammesso, formerly bocciato), if they failed more than 3 subjects.

Next to the name of a student who has been ammesso, there are written the grades obtained in each subject plus the average grade and the number of absences.

These data are not written for students who failed or got sospensione del giudizio to protect their privacy.

Students who get sospensione del giudizio have to contact the school to know their final marks, which subjects they failed (max. 3) and which remedial classes they have to attend.
